R&CA CONGRATULATES PETER DOYLE ON A STELLAR CAREER

Restaurant & Catering Australia (R&CA) has extended its congratulations to Peter Doyle who has announced his impending retirement from restaurant kitchens as of June this year.

R&CA CEO Juliana Payne thanked Peter for his contribution to the restaurant industry in Australia over a long and distinguished career.

“On behalf of R&CA, I wish to thank Peter for his tireless work in promoting the restaurant industry in this country.

“His decades-long career in hospitality is in many respects unparalleled and he has well and truly left his mark with a number of iconic restaurant businesses.

“We are most grateful for Peter’s immense contribution and we wish him the best as he transitions from working in restaurant kitchens to training and mentoring a new generation of hospitality apprentices.

Ms Payne stated that Peter’s career exemplified the merits of undertaking a long-term career in the hospitality field and provided a source of inspiration for a younger generation of hospitality apprentices.

“Peter is a shining example of what you can achieve with a long-term career in the hospitality industry and we’d encourage all young people considering this career path to look at what Peter has done as a source of encouragement and inspiration.”
