

Restaurant & Catering SA 2019 Hospitality Awards

Restaurant & Catering is proud to open nominations for the 2019 Restaurant & Catering Hospitality Awards. The aim of these awards is to honour true professionals in the hospitality industry who are dedicated to their profession. The organisers of these prestigious awards are seeking people who are outstanding and always prepared to strive to achieve excellence, and whose attitude and contribution to their profession has inspired public confidence in the hospitality Industry.

The 2019 Restaurant & Catering Hospitality Awards are open to all members of the Association, restaurant and catering nominees of the 2019 Awards for Excellence, and their employees.

Winners will be announced in conjunction with the 2019 Savour Australia Restaurant & Catering HOSTPLUS Awards for Excellence a gala dinner on Monday 15 July 2019. Applications should be submitted on this official form accompanied with a resume, at least one reference and any other information useful to assist the adjudicators in making a decision.

Restaurant & Catering will take great care in adjudicating the awards. Their decision will be final and no correspondence will be entered into.

GEORGE MURE PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT AWARD JUDGING CRITERIA

Judging is completed by assessment of a written application. The training activities which are included in the application need to have been undertaken during the previous twelve (12) months. The Assessment Criteria which will be used to judge the Award are as follows:

1. The amount of training, formal & informal, which is conducted in the applicant's organisation. This would include training at management, supervisory, and operational levels, as well as training undertaken by the owner/operator.
2. How much use has been made of Industry/Government recognised training programs, e.g. courses which are recognised by the Australian Hospitality Review Panel or the applicant's State Training Authority.
3. Opportunities for access to training of special groups, including women, Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islanders, people with a disability, and people from a non-English speaking background.
4. The extent to which training is a part of the planning process of the organisation, e.g. how does the organisation use training to advance the objectives of their business, etc.
5. The ways in which off-the-job training, e.g. apprenticeships & traineeships, are used to support on-the-job training.
6. The achievements of employees which can be attributed to the training given to them by the applicant's business.
7. The amount of involvement in training-related activities, e.g. industry-based Committees established by local training providers.

A panel of experts will be convened to assess the written submissions.
